P.S. – ACCOMMODATION CLOSE TO THE VENUE

Prefer to stay close to the courts?

There are also several private apartment and Airbnb-style accommodation options in the neighbourhood around the venue, with some listings approximately a 5-minute walk from Padel Hub.

These can be a very practical choice for players and families who prefer to stay close to the courts and avoid daily transfers.

Availability changes frequently, so we recommend booking early and checking the exact walking route to Padel Hub before confirming your accommodation.

For sustainability and environmental protection reasons, no shuttle service will be provided. Public transportation is recommended because it is generally cheaper and can be faster for reaching the venue or nearby hotels.

Kaunas is Lithuania's second-largest city, located at the confluence of the Nemunas and Neris rivers. History, interwar modernist architecture, green spaces and a lively cultural scene come together in a compact, welcoming city centre.

Kaunas Castle
A 14th-century Gothic fortress and one of Lithuania's oldest stone castles. The riverside area offers walks, a tower museum and views of the confluence.

Laisvės Alėja (Liberty Avenue)
A 1.6 km pedestrian boulevard lined with cafes, shops and cultural sites - a convenient place for a walk, coffee or lunch.

St. Michael the Archangel Church (Soboras)
A striking Byzantine-style church at the end of Liberty Avenue and one of the city's best-known landmarks.

Ąžuolynas Park (Oak Grove)
A large urban oak forest and a peaceful green space for walking, jogging or relaxing, especially attractive in autumn.

Lithuanian Zoo
The oldest zoo in the Baltic states, offering an educational and family-friendly experience.

Vytautas the Great War Museum
One of Lithuania's most important museums, presenting military history from ancient times to the modern era.

Devils' Museum
A unique collection of more than 3,000 devil-themed figures and artworks from around the world.

M. K. Čiurlionis National Art Museum
A museum dedicated to Lithuania's renowned artist and composer, showcasing symbolic paintings and Lithuanian art heritage.

Pažaislis Monastery
A Baroque complex near the Kaunas Reservoir, known for its architecture, frescoes, gardens and peaceful surroundings. It is approximately a 15-minute drive from central Kaunas.
